Headteacher/Deputy Headteacher should be informed of the answer to the questions and should alert the Police/Local Authority. The Headteacher will decide whether to evacuate the building.

Evacuation

Staff Training and Development

The Headteacher is responsible for annually assessing the health and safety training needs of all staff and for arranging any identified training.

Safety induction must be given to all new employees on the first day of employment. This induction should take the form of a checklist and new staff should be clearly informed of RGTS's Health and Safety provisions e.g. Action to be taken in the event of a fire, Fire exits and knowledge of first aid arrangements.

Training must also be given to all key staff and staff with special responsibilities, such as the Site Manager, First Aid staff and Staff taking students on trips.

Visitors are to be made aware, by the member of staff that they have come to see, of any potential hazards to their health and safety within the area of RGTS they intend to visit. They are to obey all displayed warning notices and verbal instructions.

There are five categories of visitors to Royal Greenwich Trust School:

1. VIPs/Educational Visitors
2. Casual Visitors
3. Ex-students
4. Intruders
5. Troublemakers

VIPs/Educational Visitors

There is every reason to suppose that Royal Greenwich Trust School will experience high levels of VIPs and Educational Visitors.

Such visits need careful managing, if the benefits of showing our work to visitors are not to be overshadowed by negative feelings of disruption, distraction and dislocation to our central aim of delivering a high-quality curriculum to our students.

All incoming requests for visits to RGTS should be cleared by individual members of the support and teaching staff who are approached through the Business Manager. When the Headteacher has authorised a visit to RGTS, the initial welcome will be made on the day of arrival by the Headteacher, who should be briefed in advance by the individual member of the support or teaching staff who has been the initial point of contact.

The volume of visitors will be continually monitored. It may become necessary to sort requests for visits to RGTS into various categories and accord them varying levels of priority. Requests by colleagues from other schools in the Trust would normally be given high priority, as would visits by members of the Board.

Casual Visitors

As with all busy work places, there is a high level of casual visitors to RGTS during the course of a normal working day. These could be parents visiting the Student Information Desk or engineers or commercial representatives going to particular areas within RGTS. Sometimes they are expected, more often than not, their visit is unplanned.

If the visit is expected by a member of staff, their name should be provided to Reception so that the Receptionist is aware of the visit and will be able to greet the person accordingly on arrival. The visitor will then be asked to wait in the Reception Area, while the person expecting the visitor can be located. At this point, the member of staff will come to Reception to collect their visitor or a Student Receptionist will be asked to take the visitor to the particular area or member of staff.

For reasons of safety for staff and students, unknown visitors should on no account be allowed to wander through RGTS. Notices are displayed at all entrances requesting all visitors to report to the front Reception to obtain a Visitor's Badge and sign the Visitor's Book.

Ex-students

Often ex-students make social calls to RGTS. The Headteacher should be contacted and permission granted for the visitor to come onto the premises. Once permission is given and they have signed the Visitor's Book, a Visitor's Badge is issued and the visitor can proceed.

In all three cases, it is imperative that the visitor completes the Visitor's Book and is issued with a Visitor's Badge (details of any vehicles should also be entered into the Visitor's Book).

Intruders

All staff are asked to take careful note of the following advice, which may help you to handle any difficult situations if you are confronted by an intruder or intruders on our premises. Always aim to be welcoming and polite to all our visitors. If you see anyone that you think should not be on RGTS premises, do not approach them directly on your own but inform the Front Reception Desk immediately and ask the Headteacher to be called. It may be possible to keep them on site by telephoning the Front Reception Desk or by sending a note with a student, rather than by reporting in person. When you have identified the intruders to the Headteacher, please remain present whilst the Headteacher asks them in a friendly way their reasons for being on site. The Headteacher should guard against questioning someone on the basis of stereotyped assumptions about people based on their appearance. If satisfied that they are on legitimate business, please accompany them to Reception to collect a Visitor's Pass and sign the Visitor's Book.

To distinguish between intruders and authorised visitors, notices informing “visitors” of the need to report to the main reception desk and obtain a visitor’s identity tag should be displayed at RGTS’ entrance. If the person is unable to offer an acceptable reason for remaining, the Headteacher should politely ask them to leave in a clear and firm way.

NEVER touch the intruder, even lightly, as this can be misinterpreted and provoke hostile reactions. If they refuse to leave, the Headteacher should not attempt to force them to leave but dial 999 to call the police. Note that the Headteacher can be called by radio from the Front Reception Desk. In this situation, try to remain calm and avoid raising your voice or being drawn into an argument.

If the police are called as a result of a physical assault, in serious cases they have the power to arrest the assailant and take legal proceedings directly.

Take a note of the description of any intruders and any conversation which you might have had with them, even when they leave the premises on your request or where they might have refused to leave initially but then leave before the police arrive. In the unfortunate event of any injuries being sustained, a separate report should be made on the Standard Accident/Injury Form and returned to the Business Manager

Some “Intruders” are ex-students, merely making a social call. Help them to obtain an official Visitor’s Pass, available from Reception.

REMEMBER, the Trustees of Royal Greenwich Trust School will provide the fullest support legally possible to staff in connection with alleged assaults, threats or criminal damage arising in the course of or out of the performance of their duties.

Troublemakers

Guidance, “Academy Security: Dealing with Troublemakers”, was issued by the DCSF on 16 December 1997 to all Academies/UTCs in England. The guidance spells out the powers of the police and the criminal justice system to deal with troublemakers in and around academies/UTCs.

The guidance also covers section 4 of the Offensive Weapons Act 1996. It is an offence under the Offensive Weapons Act 1996 to carry, without reason or authority, a knife or offensive weapon in or around Academies. This applies to all knives, other than folding pen knives, with a three inch or smaller blade. However, Royal Greenwich Trust School has banned all knives, regardless of the length of the blade.

The Trust Board has authorised the Headteacher (or nominee), in exercising day to day management of RGTS, to determine who should have access to the premises. The Board have determined that nobody (including governors, staff, students or parents) has an unrestricted right of access to RGTS except those with a statutory right to do so. During the day parents should act as visitors, complying with appropriate arrangements; they should present themselves to the main reception desk, following a route to other defined parts of RGTS as determined by the Headteacher (or nominee).

Suppliers, contractors and commercial deliveries must follow separate arrangements as determined by the Business Manager (or his representative).

The Royal Greenwich Trust School building and its grounds are private places and anyone entering without authority (including students, ex-students and parents) is trespassing and may be asked to leave by the Headteacher (or nominee). Causing harassment, alarm or distress to staff or students, threatening, abusing or insulting staff, on or off school premises, could be an offence. The Headteacher (or nominee) will exercise professional judgement in deciding whether to involve police in incidents of this nature.

General precautions

Any members of staff going off site must ensure that they sign out at the main office. On their return they must be sure to sign back in again.

All visitors to RGTS must sign in and sign out in the Visitors book, so that a list of visitors in the building is available at any time.

Any events, which use the premises out of working hours, especially where visitors to the Trust are involved, will be subject to particular procedures for the specific event. The key individual organising the event, will check procedures with the Business Manager.

Working at Height

The Business Manager is responsible for the purchase and maintenance of all ladders in RGTS.

All ladders conform to BS/EN standards as appropriate.

The Premises staff are also responsible for completing risk assessments for all working at height tasks in RGTS.

Staff are reminded that 'working at height' applies to all activities which cannot be undertaken whilst standing on the floor.

If you need to hang decorations or displays then a step stool or small step ladder must be used. Standing on desks, chairs or other furniture is not permitted.

Work Experience Placements – Students

In the event of an incident or situation that puts students at risk whilst on Work Experience, the nominated work Placement Co-ordinator will contact the work placements.

The purpose of the call is to ensure that the employer makes arrangements for the students' safety and their safe return home.

In the absence of the Work Experience Co-ordinator, the Head of Faculty will ensure contact is made with Work Experience Students and/or providers, to ensure their safety.

For safety reasons, students must contact RGTS if they do not attend a placement. If a student cannot be contacted, RGTS/Work Experience Co-ordinator will make initial contact with the parents. In the absence of the Work Experience Co-ordinator, contact will be made by Head of Faculty.

RGTS will maintain student mobile phone numbers, where possible, on the database for Work Experience.

In the absence of both HOF and Work Experience Co-ordinator, the Deputy Headteacher of RGTS will initiate in this event, failing this, in the last resort the Headteacher.
